Jasper Makes a Hit With Tourists.

Two cars of tourists from Taylor, Texas, on the way to Ohio, drove into Jasper Monday evening and camped in the park. Along toward 10 o'clock it looked very much like a big storm was coming up, and Mayor Hull went over and invited the campers to use the big flour store room at the Farmers Elevator and run their cars under the driveway of the elevator. The travelers were E. A. Brill and family, W. H. Dosser and wife and Misses Nell Landers and Susie Williamson. They were greatly pleased at the courtesies shown them and said they had not been so well treated since they left home.

It costs nothing to be kind to the stranger within your gates, and Jasper will have many opportunities during the tourist season which may be turned to our benefit as well as the tourists'.

For Ex-Service Men.

Former soldiers and sailors in Jasper County suffering with arrested tuberculosis as a result of their service to the country during the war are eligible for entrance to newly established convalescent training centers and will be assisted to obtain entrance to one through the Carthage Chapter of the Red Cross, according to an announcement today by the executive secretary of the local chapter.

Information received from the southwestern division office of the Red Cross states that a convalescent center for cases of former service men with arrested tuberculosis has been established for Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas at San Antonio, and for Kansas and Missouri at Nauvoo, Ill. A third is under way at a point near Des Moines, Iowa.

These centers are equipped with dormitories for single men and small apartments for men with families so that they need not be separated from their families during the period they are at the training centers. The training pay ranging from $80 to $170 per month is sufficient to take care of the expense of the man and his family while there, and he is to be taught whatever of a wide variety of subjects in vocational training that he may elect.

Men may make application through the local chapter and arrangements will be made for the necessary examination and other details relative to the application. Transportation of the service man to the center is paid by the government. The convalescent centers are equipped with medical and complete recreational facilities.

ROAD BOND ISSUE LOST

More Interest Shown Than in Any Local Election for Years.

The Jasper Special Road District commissioners were denied their petition for a $40,000 bond issue for road purposes by a vote of 200 against to 232 for the measure in the election Tuesday. A two-thirds majority is required to carry a bond issue.

The election was harder fought than any election in Jasper for years. A very active interest was manifested against the bonds several days before the election by two or three farmers and about the same number of citizens of Jasper who have little else to do but agitate, and generally on the negative side, and to them can be credited largely the defeat of the bond issue.

A meeting was held at the sales pavilion Saturday night under the direction of the commercial club for the purpose of explaining the purposes of the bond issue, the benefits and the cost to the public. Eli Scott presented the local side of the issue, and John Malang, former superintendent of the State Good Roads Commission, addressed the meeting from a general standpoint on the subject. Both speakers presented facts and figures that it is difficult to understand how people could refuse to believe, and a number of votes were made, but many of those most set against the proposition were not among the 500 or more in the audience.

The issue of bonds to build roads is really the most equitable and fair method yet proposed for this purpose, because it provides the money when it is needed and everybody pays a fair proportion, and as in this case the burden is generally light.

The News is not informed as to all the arguments used against the issue, but farmers were told in some instances, they said, that it would cost a farmer owning 160 acres $25 a year to pay the interest alone, which of course is so ridiculous that it is impossible to believe that a man could be honest and make such a claim.

However, this paper does not charge the defeat of the measure to the farmer—not so much as to a lot of folks in town whom the bonds would not have cost $1.00 a year, but who voted against it—from principle(?)—that principle that keeps a man from going to any expense at all except on his own premises.

The commissioners may submit the issue again, or measures may be taken to change the boundary of the road district, bringing the east line in far enough to leave the Sheridan township folks out, as practically the only rural objection to the issue was from Sheridan.

JASPER'S FOURTH SALES DAY.

Saturday, July 2—Announcements Mailed Far and Wide.

A big crowd is expected in Jasper Saturday for the monthly trades-day sale. Double-page announcements have been mailed to almost a thousand rural mail boxes out of Jasper, Golden City, Kennoma, Lamar, Iantha, Medoc, Alba and Carthage.

A good list of property will be put up at the auction sale and the merchants are offering excellent money-saving opportunities to shoppers.

On another page of this paper will be found the ads announcing the trades-day bargains at the stores.

Everybody is cordially invited to Jasper Saturday, July 2.

Plenty of Rain.

To more than a week prior to Sunday rain fell in this vicinity nearly every day, ranging from a light drizzle to a heavy down-pour. Monday, between 12 noon and 1 o'clock one of the heaviest rains of the period fell, accompanied by hail.

Threshing has been postponed and some damage to uncut oats in low ground where the soil became so well soaked that the oats fell over and can not be cut.

Some of the corn needed cultivating badly by the first of the week, but a week's dry weather will give farmers a chance to lean out their corn and resume threshing.

Jasper Wins Another.

Hannatown and Jasper crossed bats for the second game of the season at Hannatown Sunday which resulted in another victory for the home boys. The final score being four and two. It was a close and hard fought game from start to finish, no runs being made the first four innings. Good hitting and excellent fielding, however, enabled Jasper to take the lead which Hannatown was unable to overcome. On account of recent rains the grounds were heavy which make playing very difficult. Battery for Jasper, Coats and Tallman; for Hannatown, Cearnal and Crawford. Game next Sunday at the home grounds with Alba. Come out and see a good game.

Jasper has played six games this season, winning five and tying the score in the sixth.

You've Got to Pay

Mr. Home Owner: You can't escape the cost of painting. You may take your choice of letting your buildings rot and decay which is the most expensive way, or for a few dollars you can buy White Lead and Linseed Oil, which is much more economical. Let me give you free advice about painting. I have been selling paints for 28 years and can tell you something about paint and will furnish you paints that fit. Stocks complete and prices in most instances far below a year ago. Paints and Varnishes for every purpose.
